

WINNER

Erokha Ekaterina, 7 B

The pleasure of reading.

Let me tell you about the pleasure of reading. Reading plays a huge role in people's lives. At first books develop our imagination and cultivate our minds.

People who read a lot of books are more interesting in communication as they know a lot. With them you can find any theme for conversation easier. You become smarter when you read because you learn new information.

Reading is a wonderful hobby. You can find new friends with it. Your speech becomes witty and fascinating. There are a lot of talented writers who are famous all over the world. They gave us gold literature that changed the world. Every folk have its own literature.

Every school has a library. We get knowledge and learn a lot of things from books, so they are really important for us.